I, Allen Carney, declare as follows:

1. I am a partner in the firm of Carney Bates & Pulliam PLLC (“CBP” or the “Firm”). I am submitting this declaration in support of the application for an award of attorneys’ fees and expenses/charges (“expenses”) in connection with services rendered in the above-entitled action.

2. This Firm is Local Counsel of record for Plaintiff Strathclyde Pension Fund.

3. The information in this declaration regarding the Firm’s time and expenses is taken from time and expense reports and supporting documentation prepared and/or maintained by the Firm in the ordinary course of business. I am the partner who oversaw and conducted the day-to-day activities in the litigation, and I reviewed these reports (and backup documentation where necessary or appropriate) in connection with the preparation of this declaration. The purpose of this review was to confirm both the accuracy of the entries as well as the necessity for, and reasonableness of, the time and expenses committed to the litigation. As a result of this review, reductions were made to both time and expenses in the exercise of billing judgment. Based on this review and the adjustments made, I believe that the time reflected in the Firm’s lodestar calculation and the expenses for which payment is sought herein are reasonable and were necessary for the effective and efficient prosecution and resolution of the litigation.

4. After the reductions referred to above, the number of hours spent on the litigation by my Firm is 177.70. A breakdown of the lodestar is provided in Exhibit A. The lodestar amount for attorney/paralegal time based on the Firm's current rates is $146,350.00. The amounts included in Exhibit A are derived from the usual and customary rates set forth in the Firm's time records, which are prepared contemporaneously, describe tasks performed in 0.1 hour increments, and are maintained in the ordinary course of business. The hourly rates shown in Exhibit A are consistent with hourly rates submitted by the Firm in other complex class action litigation. The Firm's rates are set based on periodic analysis of rates charged by firms performing comparable work both on the plaintiff and defense side.

5. My Firm seeks an award of $1,262.75 in expenses and charges in connection with the prosecution of the litigation.

6. The following is additional information regarding certain of these expenses:

(a) Filing, Witness and Other Fees: $500.00. These expenses have been paid to the Court for filing fees for admission pro hac vice for Jonah Goldstein (Dkt #22), Heather Schlesier (Dkt #21); Carissa Dolan (Dkt #20), Caroline Robert (Dkt #93) and Ellen Stewart (Dkt #198).

(b) Photocopies: $762.75. In connection with this case, the Firm made 3,051 "in-house" photocopies, charging $0.25 per copy for a total of $762.75. CBP has not submitted an expense request for general, day-to-day copying costs associated with this matter. Instead, the photocopies identified above were prepared as deposition exhibits, and were thereby identified as related directly to this case.

7. The expenses pertaining to this case are reflected in the books and records of this Firm. These books and records are prepared from receipts, expense vouchers, check records, and other documents and are an accurate record of the expenses.

8. CBP is at the forefront of national complex class litigation in a host of practice areas. Recent highlights include:

- Amanda Rushing, et al. v. The Walt Disney Company, et al., 3:17-cv-04419-JD (N.D. Cal.); Amanda Rushing, et al. v. Viacom Inc., et al., 3:17-cv-04492-JD (N.D. Cal.); and Michael McDonald, et al. v. Kiloo APS, et al., 3:17-cv-04344-JD (N.D. Cal.). Class action settlement between Disney, Viacom, Kiloo and other gaming companies and a nationwide class of parents for violating child privacy protection laws by collecting and selling personal identifying information of children who used their child-focused mobile apps. The lawsuits alleged the media giants collected kid's personal data without parental consent and improperly used it to profit by targeting them with ads and pushing them to make in-app purchases. Under the settlement, which The New York Times says could reshape the entire children's app market, Disney, Viacom and 10 advertising technology firms have agreed to remove or disable certain advertising software from their apps to address the accusations that they violated the privacy of millions of children. “This is going to be the biggest change to the children’s app market that we’ve seen that gets at the business models,” said Josh Golin, the executive director of Campaign for a Commercial-Free Childhood, a nonprofit in Boston. “On thousands of apps, children will no longer be targeted with the most insidious and manipulative forms of marketing.”¹

- Williams v. State Farm Mutual Automobile Insurance Company, 4:11-cv-00749-KGB (E.D. Ark.) (litigation resulting in a settlement of $21.7 million with 7,635 Arkansas insureds receiving 100% recovery plus six percent prejudgment interest while releasing no claims or rights (other than named plaintiffs));
- Ebarle, et al. v. LifeLock, Inc., 3:15-cv-00258 (N.D. Cal.) (class action on behalf of customers of the identity theft protection service, resulting in a nationwide settlement of $81 million);
- Wayne Miner et al. v. Philip Morris USA Inc., Case No. 60CV-03-4661 (Pulaski Co. Cir. Ct.) (class action on behalf of Arkansas smokers over claims that the defendant misrepresented the safety of its “light” cigarette products, resulting in $45 million settlement);

- Econo-Med Pharmacy, Inc. v. Roche Diagnostics Corporation, 1:16-cv-00789-TWP-MPB (S.D. Ind.) (Class action litigation pursuant to the Telephone Consumer Protection Act (“TCPA”), resulting in a $17 million settlement);
- ARcare, Inc. v. Qiagen North America Holdings, Inc., et al., Case No. 43CV-17-46 (Lonoke Co. Cir. Ct.) (Class action litigation pursuant to the TCPA resulting in a $15.5 million settlement);
- In re: The Home Depot, Inc., Customer Data Security Breach Litigation, 1:14-md-02583-TWT (N.D. Ga.) (serving on Plaintiffs’ Steering Committee; a settlement, with a common fund of $25 million and an additional fund of $2.25 million for distribution to financial institutions whose claims were purportedly released by third-party sponsors);
- In re: Target Corporation Customer Data Security Breach Litigation, 0:14-cmd-02522-PAM-JJK (D. Minn.) (serving as counsel for lead plaintiff Umpqua Bank; class action settlement valued at $39.4 million).
- State of New Mexico, ex rel. Hector Balderas, Attorney General v. Tiny Lab Productions and Google LLC, et al., 1:18-cv-00854-MV-JFR

(D.N.M.) and State of New Mexico, ex rel. Hector Balderas, Attorney General v. Google LLC, a Delaware limited liability company, 1:20-cv-00143-NF-KHR (D.N.M.). CBP served as counsel for Office of Attorney General of New Mexico in two actions alleging violations of the Children’s Online Privacy Protection Act (“COPPA”) and state law privacy related to collection of children’s information on gaming apps and on Google’s G Suite for Education products. In addition to a sizeable monetary component, the settlement profoundly enhances privacy protections for children.²

9. CBP’s current hourly rates of $850 for partners to $390 for associates, are reasonable in light of the attorneys’ skill, experience, qualifications, and the prevailing market rates for similar services by comparable lawyers, and they have been frequently approved (adjusted for inflation) by Courts both in Arkansas and across the country. See, e.g., Williams, et al. v. State Farm Mutual Automobile Ins. Co., Case No. 4:11-00749 KGB (E.D. Ark. Feb. 13, 2018) (slip op.) (awarding fees of 30% and conducting lodestar crosscheck where CBP submitted hourly rates of $690 for senior partners, $600 to $540 for partners, and $350 to $300 for associates);

Miner v. Philip Morris Companies, Inc., Case No. 60CV-03-4661 (Pulaski Co. Cir. Ct., Ark.), Fee Order (2017) and Fee Declarations (granting fee request of $10,000,000, where CBP's submitted hourly billing rates of $700.00 to $540.00 for partners and $475.00 to $300.00 for associates, among other firms' rates); Phillips v. Caliber Home Loans, Inc., Case No. 0:19-cv-02711-WMW-LIB (D. Minn.) (approving request for attorney fees where CBP submitted hourly rates of $850 for senior partners and $485 for senior associates); Caldwell v. Freedom Mortg. Corp., Case No. 3:19-cv-02193-N (N.D. Tex.) (approving request for attorney fees where CBP submitted hourly rates of $850 for senior partners and $485 for senior associates); Zuern v. IDS Prop. Cas. Ins. Co., Case No. 3:19-cv-06235-MLP (W.D. Wa.) (approving request for attorney fees where CBP submitted hourly rates of $790 for senior partners and $485 for senior associates); Amanda Rushing, et al. v. The Walt Disney Company, et al., 3:17-cv-04419-JD (N.D. Cal.) (approving lodestar fee based on hourly rates of $790 for senior partners and $430 for senior associates); Amanda Rushing, et al. v. Viacom Inc., et al., 3:17-cv-04492-JD (N.D. Cal.) (same); Michael McDonald, et al. v. Killoo APS, et al., 3:17-cv-04344-JD (N.D. Cal.) (same); Matera v. Google, Case No. 5:15-cv-04062-LHK (N.D. Cal. Feb. 19, 2018) (slip op. at 8) (approving lodestar fee and hourly rates of $750 for senior partners and $375-395 for associates).

10. The identification and background of my Firm and its partners is attached hereto as Exhibit B.

I declare under penalty of perjury that the foregoing is true and correct.

Executed this 12th day of August, 2022 at Little Rock, Arkansas.

The Firm's Practice and Achievements

Carney Bates & Pulliam, PLLC is a national law firm that represents clients in complex litigation ranging from false advertising or deceptive marketing to data breach and data security to securities fraud to environmental hazards. Carney Bates & Pulliam is recognized as one of the country's premiere firms in the areas of consumer protection class actions, securities fraud, environmental law and employment discrimination.

The attorneys at Carney Bates & Pulliam are uniquely qualified to prosecute consumer protection claims. CBP has represented the State of New Mexico in numerous lawsuits against some of the largest financial service companies in connection with their practice of deceptively marketing and implementing Payment Protection Plans. The firm has recovered over $100 million for credit card holders in various actions against Bank of America, Capital One, Chase, Discover and HSBC. CBP served as co-lead counsel in Williams v. State Farm Mutual Automobile Insurance Company, 4:11-cv-00749-KGB (E.D. Ark.), which resulted in a settlement of $21.7 million with 7,635 individuals receiving 100% recovery plus 6 percent prejudgment interest while releasing no claims or rights (other than named plaintiffs). The firm served as co-lead counsel in Ebarle, et al. v. LifeLock, Inc., 3:15-cv-00258 (N.D. Cal.), a class action on behalf of customers of the identity theft protection service, arising from claims that LifeLock delivered false statements about its services and failed to alert customers on a timely basis of potential identity theft, that concluded with a nationwide settlement of $81 million. The firm also served as counsel in Wayne Miner et al. v. Philip Morris USA Inc., Circuit Court of Pulaski County, Arkansas, Case No. 60CV-03-4661, a class action brought on behalf of Arkansas smokers over claims that the defendant misrepresented the safety of its "light" cigarette products, which settled for $45 million. The firm currently serves as counsel to the State of New Mexico in State of New Mexico v. JUUL Labs, Inc., County of Santa Fe First Judicial District Court, New Mexico, Case No. D-101-CV-2020-01033, related to JUUL's marketing and sale of e-cigarettes to teenagers and adolescents.

The firm has positioned itself at the forefront of data breach and data security litigation. Our attorneys were appointed to the Plaintiffs' Steering Committee in In re: The Home Depot, Inc., Customer Data Security Breach Litigation, 1:14-md-02583-TWT (N.D. Ga.), an MDL class action brought on behalf of injured financial institutions in the wake of a massive retailer data breach. A settlement, with a common fund of $25 million and an additional fund of $2.25 million for distribution to financial institutions whose claims were purportedly released by third-party sponsors, was granted final approval on September 22, 2017. We served as counsel for the lead plaintiff in In re: Target Corporation Customer Data Security Breach Litigation, 0:14-cmd-02522-PAM-JJK (D. Minn.), successfully representing Umpqua Bank and a class of financial institution plaintiffs over injuries suffered from one of the largest data breaches in history. A settlement, valued at $39.4 million, was granted final approval by the Court on May 12, 2016. CBP also was appointed to the Financial Institution Plaintiff's Steering Committee in the multi-district litigation, In re. Equifax, Inc., Customer Data Security Breach Litigation, 1:17-md-2800-TWT (N.D. Ga.). The litigation arises from the 2017 Equifax data breach, in which hundreds of millions of consumer records were stolen by third parties.

CBP served as co-lead counsel in three class actions against mobile application developers alleging surreptitious tracking of minors in violation of state laws. Amanda Rushing, et al. v. The Walt Disney Company, et al., 3:17-cv-04419-JD (N.D. Cal.); Amanda Rushing, et al. v. Viacom Inc., et al., 3:17-cv-04492-JD (N.D. Cal.); and Michael McDonald, et al. v. Kiloo APS, et al., 3:17-cv-04344-JD (N.D. Cal.). These cases resolved in fifteen separate settlements with Disney, Viacom, Kiloo, Sybo and 11 advertising technology firms. In a New York Times article, Josh Golin, the executive director of Campaign for a Commercial-Free Childhood, said "This is going to be the biggest change to the children’s app market that we’ve seen that gets at the business models . . . On thousands of apps, children will no longer be targeted with the most insidious and manipulative forms of marketing.”

Similarly, in Daniel Matera, et al. v. Google, Inc., 5:15-cv-04062-LHK (N.D. Cal.), CBP served as co-lead counsel in a class action involving allegations of email interception and violation of state and federal anti-wiretapping laws. A settlement, requiring Google to stop using content derived from email transmissions for user profiling and targeted advertising, was granted final approval on February 9, 2018. In addition, our attorneys were appointed by the court as co-lead counsel in Matthew Campbell, et al. v. Facebook, Inc., 4:13-cv-05996-PJH (N.D. Cal.), a class action involving allegations of email interception and violations of federal anti-wiretapping laws. Final approval of an injunctive relief settlement, securing disclosures and limitations on Facebook’s interception and use of private message content, was granted on August 18, 2017. We served as lead counsel in Econo-Med Pharmacy, Inc. v. Roche Diagnostics Corporation, 1:16-cv-00789-TWP-MPB (S.D. Ind.), representing a class of pharmacies in a Telephone Consumer Protection Act (“TCPA”) litigation resulting in a $17 million settlement, which was granted final approval on September 21, 2017. Additionally, we served as lead counsel in ARcare, Inc. v. Qiagen North America Holdings, Inc., et al., Case No. 43CV-17-46 (Judge Sandy Huckabee, Lonoke Co. Cir. Ct.), representing a class of pharmacies in a TCPA litigation resulting in a $15.5 million settlement, which was granted final approval on December 3, 2018.

The firm currently serves as counsel to the State of New Mexico in State of New Mexico v. Tiny Lab Productions, et al., Case No. 18-cv-00854-LF-KBM (D.N.M.), an action brought against child app developers and advertising networks for violations of the Children’s Online Privacy Protection Act, 15 U.S.C. §§ 6501, et seq. (“COPPA”), and against Google, LLC for trafficking in privacy-invasive apps in its online store.

CBP’s reputation for excellence in accounting fraud and other complex class actions has been recognized on repeated occasions by federal and state court judges who have appointed the firm to serve as lead or co-lead counsel in numerous cases throughout the country. In this regard, the firm has successfully represented certain states throughout the country in matters involving securities litigation such as in Mississippi Public Employees Retirement System v. Semtech and In re Sterling Financial Corporation Securities Class Action, representing Public Employees Retirement Association of New Mexico and the New Mexico Educational Retirement Board.

The firm has been successful at protecting shareholders in “change-of-control” transactions seeking to maximize shareholder value. For example, the firm represented shareholders of Nationwide Financial in a going private transaction and was able to negotiate more than $200 million for the public shareholders in the form of an increased share price. In a similar matter, attorneys at the firm represented shareholders of 7-Eleven and brokered an additional $140 million in the sales price.

Additionally, our attorneys handling environmental litigation possess expert knowledge in issues related to groundwater and air pollution, toxic exposures, leaking pipelines and underground storage tanks, oil field contamination, and pesticides. The firm pursues claims against corporate polluters and governmental agencies on the state, local and federal level. For example, Carney Bates & Pulliam served as co-lead counsel on behalf of the Quapaw Tribe in a case that involved natural resources damages to tribe-related lands from lead and zinc mining, which resulted in an $11.5 million settlement against Asarco, LLC, in addition to confidential settlements with four other mining companies.

In the employment context, Carney Bates & Pulliam served as co-lead counsel in Nelson v. Wal-Mart Stores, Inc., 04-00171 (E.D. Ark.), a nationwide race discrimination class action on behalf of African-American truck drivers against Wal-Mart that provided $17.5 million in recovery, as well as significant changes to Wal-Mart's hiring policies and four years of court supervision of the settlement terms.

In addition to its strong personnel, Carney Bates & Pulliam is well-capitalized, allowing it to dedicate considerable resources and to advance expenses on a contingency fee basis to the fullest extent necessary to achieve the best possible result for class members. As a result of its successful track record and strong capitalization, the firm enjoys a high level of respect and credibility with the defense bar and insurance carriers that often defend and insure corporations and their officers and directors.

As a firm, Carney Bates & Pulliam values practicing in a small environment where professional and personal interaction among the partners, associates, paralegals, accounting staff and other personnel allow for a true "team approach" to litigation strategy that fosters an energetic exchange of ideas. The firm believes its size allows for a greater degree of independence, flexibility and satisfaction than a large firm environment, without sacrificing the quality of representation necessary to achieve successful results for its clients.

ALLEN CARNEY

Mr. Carney is a graduate of the University of Arkansas, earning a degree in Finance. Subsequently, Mr. Carney graduated from the University of Arkansas at Little Rock School of Law.

Mr. Carney concentrates his practice on prosecuting complex litigation on behalf of investors, consumers and employees. He has extensive experience in nationwide cases, including appointment as lead counsel in dozens of securities and consumer class actions. He has successfully represented investors and consumers in cases that achieved cumulative recoveries in the hundreds of millions of dollars for plaintiffs.

Mr. Carney played a key role in litigating the various Payment Protection actions against the largest credit card issuers. These actions resulted in significant recoveries for injured consumers. See Kardonick v. JPMorgan Chase, S.D. Florida, $20 million; Esslinger v. HSBC Bank Nevada, E.D. Pennsylvania, $23.5 million; In re Discover Credit Card Payment Protection, N.D. Illinois, $10.5 million; In re Bank of America, N.D. California, $20 million; Spinelli v. Capital One; M.D. Florida; more than $100 million.

Mr. Carney was lead counsel in Semtech Securities Litigation, a federal securities fraud class action that settled prior to trial achieving a significant recovery for investors. Additionally, he has served as lead counsel in numerous other federal securities fraud class actions, including In re Lernout & Hauspie Securities Litigation, No. 00-11589-PBS (D. Mass.) ($115 million settlement); In re NewPower Securities Litigation, No. 2-CV-1550 (S.D.N.Y.) ($41 million settlement); In re DQE, Inc. Securities Litigation, No. 01-1851 (W.D. Pa.); In re Ashanti Goldfields Securities Litigation, No. CV-00-9717 (DGT) (RML) (E.D.N.Y.); In re Central Parking Corporation Securities Litigation, No. 03-CV-0546 M.D. Tenn.); In re Keyspan Securities Litigation, No. CV-01-5852 (ARR) (MDG) (E.D.N.Y.); Paul Ruble, et. al. v. Rural Metro Corp., et. al., No. CV-99-822-PHX-RGS (D. Ariz.).

Prior to joining the firm, Mr. Carney was a partner with Jack, Lyon & Jones, P.A. in the Little Rock, Arkansas office, where he practiced extensively in the areas of complex commercial litigation, labor and employment litigation, and business transactions. He was involved in a number of high-profile cases, including the successful defense of Capital Cities/ABC News in an action brought by Tyson Foods regarding the secret videotaping of chicken processing plants. He was also a Contributing Author to "Arkansas Employment Law Letter," published by M. Lee Smith, 1995.

Mr. Carney is licensed to practice law in Arkansas state courts, the United States District Courts for the Eastern and Western Districts of Arkansas, and the United States Court of Appeals for the Third and Eighth Circuits. Mr. Carney has argued before the Arkansas Supreme Court. Additionally, Mr. Carney has appeared in numerous federal and state courts across the nation via admission pro hac vice.

HANK BATES

Mr. Bates focuses his practice on representing individuals, small businesses, public interest groups and governmental entities in litigation to combat consumer fraud, protect data privacy, guard employee rights, clean up pollution and preserve the environment.

Mr. Bates has worked to protect consumers in a variety of settings. Recently, Mr. Bates successfully prosecuted Williams, et al. v. State Farm, 4:11-cv-00749-KGB (E.D. AR), alleging State Farm illegally took a portion of its insureds' settlements with third parties. After over six years of litigation, this case settled in June 2018, resulting in a $21.7 million common fund with 7,630 Arkansans receiving 100% recovery of the improperly taken funds plus 6 percent interest without having to file a claim or sign any release. Mr. Bates also served as co-lead counsel in Ebarle, et al. v. LifeLock, Inc., 3:15-cv-00258 (N.D. Cal.), a class action on behalf of customers of the identity theft protection service, arising from claims that LifeLock delivered false statements about its services and failed to alert customers on a timely basis of potential identity theft. A nationwide settlement of $81 million was approved in September 2016.

Mr. Bates also served as counsel in Wayne Miner et al. v. Philip Morris USA Inc., Circuit Court of Pulaski County, Arkansas, Case No. 60CV-03-4661, a class action brought on behalf of Arkansas smokers over claims that the defendant misrepresented the safety of its "light" cigarette products, which settled in 2016 for $45 million.

Mr. Bates is at the forefront of data privacy and data security litigation. In the data privacy context, he served as court-appointed class counsel in Matera, et al. v. Google, Inc., 5:15-cv-04062-LHK, securing a class action settlement in 2018 requiring Google to stop using content derived from email transmissions for user profiling and targeted advertising, and also served as court-appointed class counsel in Campbell, et al. v. Facebook, Inc., 4:13-cv-05996-PJH (N.D. Cal.), securing a settlement in 2017 requiring disclosures of and limitations on Facebook's interception and use of private message content. He also served as co-lead counsel in three class actions against mobile application developers alleging surreptitious tracking of minors in violation of state laws. Amanda Rushing, et al. v. The Walt Disney Company, et al., 3:17-cv-04419-JD (N.D. Cal.); Amanda Rushing, et al. v. Viacom Inc., et al., 3:17-cv-04492-JD (N.D. Cal.); and Michael McDonald, et al. v. Kiloo APS, et al., 3:17-cv-04344-JD (N.D. Cal.). These cases resolved in fifteen separate settlements with Disney, Viacom, Kiloo, Sybo and 11 advertising technology firms. In a New York Times article, Josh Golin, the executive director of Campaign for a Commercial-Free Childhood, said "This is going to be the biggest change to the children's app market that we've seen that gets at the business models . . . On thousands of apps, children will no longer be targeted with the most insidious and manipulative forms of marketing."

Mr. Bates has been involved in litigation over some of the largest consumer data breaches in history, serving as counsel for the lead financial institution plaintiff in In re: Target Corporation Customer Data Security Breach Litigation, 0:14-cmd-02522-PAM-JJK (D. Minn.), which recovered $39.4 million for the class of financial institutions, and serving on the Plaintiffs' Steering Committee in In re: The Home Depot, Inc., Customer Data Security Breach Litigation, 1:14-md-02583-TWT (N.D. Ga.), which settled for $25 million for the class of financial institutions.

In the environmental context, Mr. Bates has represented numerous communities across America where neighboring industries polluted their air and tainted their groundwater. These cases have resulted in multi-million-dollar recoveries for the residents of these communities as well as agreements and court orders requiring remediation of contamination and compliance with the environmental laws in the future. For example, as co-lead counsel for the Quapaw Tribe of Oklahoma, Mr. Bates secured an $11.5 million settlement from Asarco, LLC for spoiling the Tribe's historic reservation with lead and zinc mining waste, in addition to confidential settlements from four other mining companies. Mr. Bates has also successfully represented numerous farmers in cases involving crop damage by defective pesticides. In addition, he represented conservation groups in California and Arkansas to protect our waterways from pollution, free-flowing stream from dams, and endangered species from loss of critical habitat.

Mr. Bates's employment litigation includes acting as court-appointed class counsel in a nationwide race discrimination class action on behalf of African-American truck drivers against Wal-Mart that provided $17.5 million in recovery, significant changes to Wal-Mart's hiring policies and four years of court supervision of the settlement terms requiring improved hiring practices.

In his community, Mr. Bates has served as President of the Board of Directors for Arkansas Advocates for Children and Families, and on the Advisory Board for the Arkansas Journal of Social Change and Public Service. He served as an inaugural board member of the Arkansas Citizens First Congress and has been honored as Sierran of the Year by the Arkansas Chapter of the Sierra Club, Civil Rights Activist of the Year by the Arkansas Public Policy Panel, and has received the Angel Award from Treatment Homes, Inc., which provides training for therapeutic foster care parents.

Mr. Bates is active in the bar, currently serving as Arkansas State Coordinator for Public Justice. Previously he served as the Chairman of the Environmental Law Section of the Arkansas Bar Association and as Vice-Chairman of the American Bar Association's Committee on Pesticides, Chemical Regulation, and Right-to-Know.

Mr. Bates is listed in The Best Lawyers in America and as a "Super Lawyer" (among the top 5 percent of lawyers in Arkansas, Mississippi and Tennessee) by Mid-South Super Lawyers Magazine.

RANDALL K. PULLIAM

Mr. Pulliam graduated from the University of Central Arkansas with a Bachelor of Business Administration degree, where he was nominated for Outstanding Management Student in the university's School of Business. Mr. Pulliam later earned his Master of Business Administration degree from the University of Arkansas, with an emphasis in Finance. Mr. Pulliam earned his juris doctorate from the University of Arkansas at Little Rock (UALR) School of Law where he received multiple American Jurisprudence Awards.

Mr. Pulliam has been appointed lead counsel in dozens of successful class actions relating to consumer protection, including Econo-Med Pharmacy, Inc. v. Roche Diagnostics Corporation, 1:16-cv-00789-TWP-MPB (S.D. Ind.), representing a class of pharmacies in a Telephone Consumer Protection Act (“TCPA”) litigation resulting in a $17 million settlement and ARcare, Inc. v. Qiagen North America Holdings, Inc., et al., Case No. 43CV-17-46 (Judge Sandy Huckabee, Lonoke Co. Cir. Mr. Pulliam represented the State of New Mexico in a series of lawsuits that each favorably resolved asserting causes of actions for violations of the Dodd-Frank Act and state law against seven of the largest financial institutions in the world.

Mr. Pulliam has substantial experience in many areas of the securities industry, holding his Series 7 General Securities Representative license. Mr. Pulliam worked for Stephens, Inc. as an Equity Trader for four years, where he executed in excess of $2 billion in securities transactions each year and participated in the firm’s underwriting and Initial Public Offering allocation decisions. Prior to working at Stephens, Mr. Pulliam worked as an investment banker for Crews and Associates, Inc., where he was responsible for buying municipal bonds for both individual and institutional investors.

Mr. Pulliam has also represented investors seeking financial recovery for losses suffered as a result of securities fraud, as well as in “change-of-control” transactions seeking to maximize shareholder value. Mr. Pulliam represented shareholders of Nationwide Financial in a going private transaction and was able to achieve more than $200 million for the public shareholders. In a similar matter, Mr. Pulliam represented shareholders of 7-Eleven and helped negotiate an additional $140 million in the sales price.

Prior to joining the firm, Mr. Pulliam had a successful law practice in a variety of legal areas, including commercial litigation, where he gained extensive courtroom experience, successfully trying several jury trials.

On the issues of securities fraud and fiduciary duty, Mr. Pulliam has been quoted in numerous publications, including the New York Times and the Dallas Morning News. Mr. Pulliam has also provided presentations about issues affecting institutional investors at conferences and to the boards of numerous public and union pension funds, including being a panelist on the 2005 Institutional Shareholder Services Annual Conference, The Fiduciary Responsibility to Claim Securities Class Action Settlements. Mr. Pulliam is a past chair of the Arkansas Bar Association Securities Law Section.

TIFFANY WYATT OLDHAM

Ms. Oldham graduated cum laude from the University of Arkansas at Fayetteville School of Law in 2001. She served as a member of the Board of Advocates and the W.B. Putman Inns of Court. In addition, Ms. Oldham served as President of Phi Delta Phi honors fraternity. During her law school career, Ms. Oldham participated in various trial competitions and moot court, where she was selected as a semi-finalist in the spring rounds. Ms. Oldham has a Bachelor's of Arts in English from the University of Arkansas at Fayetteville.

Ms. Oldham began her legal career with Carney Bates & Pulliam in 2002, and for nearly two decades now, she has focused her practice on securities and consumer fraud class actions.

Ms. Oldham has had a significant role in several of the firm's prominent cases, including: Spinelli v. Capital One Bank, No. 08-CV-132-T-33EAJ (M.D. Fla.); In re Semtech Corp. Securities Litigation, No. 07-cv-7114 (FMOx) (C.D. Cal.); In re Fleming Companies, Inc. Securities and Derivative Litigation, 5-030MD-1530 (TJW) (E.D. Securities Litigation*, No. 1:00-CV-2347-CC (N.D. Ga.); Asher v. Baxter International, Inc., et. al., No. 02-CV-5608 (N.D. Ill.). Having prosecuted numerous class actions through all stages of the litigation process, Ms. Oldham has experience with the full range of litigation issues confronting investors and consumers in complex litigation.

Working together with her colleagues at Carney Bates & Pulliam, Ms. Oldham's work has contributed to hundreds of millions in recoveries for investors and consumers. Specifically, Ms. Oldham has contributed to the litigation and settlement efforts in the following cases: Ebarle, et al. v. Lifelock, Inc., Case No.3:15-cv-00258 (N.D. Cal) (consumer class action that resulted in a $81 million settlement); Econo-Med Pharmacy, Inc. v. Roche Diagnostics Corp., Case No. 1:16-cv-00789-TWP-MPB (S.D. Ind.) (TCPA class action that resulted in a $17 million settlement); ARcare, Inc. v. Qiagen North America Holdings, Inc. et al., Case No. 43CV-17-46 (Lonoke Co. Cir. Ct.) (TCPA class action that resulted in a $15.5 million settlement); and Williams v. State Farm Mutual Automobile Ins. Co., Case No. 4:11-cv-00749-KGB (E.D. Ark.) (litigation involving insurance settlement practices that resulted in a common fund settlement of $21.7 million).

Ms. Oldham has also worked on notable data breach and privacy cases, including the following: In re Equifax, Inc., Customer Data Security Breach Litigation, 1:17-md-2800-TWT (N.D. Ga.); In re: The Home Depot, Inc., Customer Data Security Breach Litigation, Case No. 1:14-md-02583-TWT (N.D. Ga.); and In re: Target Corporation Customer Data Security Breach Litigation, Case No. 0:14-cmd-02522-PAM-JJK (D. Minn.).

Immediately prior to joining Carney Bates & Pulliam, Ms. Oldham spent time overseas working for the Japanese municipal government in Okinawa, Japan. In addition, Ms. Oldham worked as an intern for the United States Bankruptcy Court, Western Division of Arkansas, where she assisted in researching bankruptcy issues and administering bankruptcy proceedings.

Ms. Oldham is licensed to practice in the Arkansas state courts and the United States District Courts for the Eastern and Western Districts of Arkansas, and the United States Courts of Appeals for the Third Circuit. She is currently a member of the American, Arkansas and Pulaski County Bar Associations. Ms. Oldham has experience in a multitude of legal fields including securities law, corporate law, business litigation, real estate transactions, and insurance regulation.

LEE LOWTHER

Mr. Lowther represents consumers in complex litigation who have fallen victim to the frauds, schemes, and abuses of unscrupulous actors. For several years before joining Carney Bates & Pulliam, Mr. Lowther had a wide-ranging defense practice at a respected firm in Little Rock, Arkansas. During his time as a defense lawyer, Mr. Lowther learned how to attack procedural and substantive weaknesses in plaintiffs' cases. This experience serves him well representing consumers, enabling him to spot and solve problems before they arise.

Since joining CBP, Mr. Lowther has been appointed class counsel in numerous contested class actions and settlement classes. He is currently counsel to two certified classes—Torliatt v. Ocwen Loan Servicing, LLC (N.D. Cal.) and Williams v. LoanCare, LLC (S.D. Tex.)—that claim the defendants violated state debt-collection laws by collecting fees from borrowers who made their mortgage payments online or over the phone. Lee is class counsel in two other cases making similar allegations—Caldwell v. Freedom Mortgage Corporation (N.D. Tex.) ($2.25 million settlement granted final approval) and Phillips v. Caliber Home Loans, Inc. (D. Minn.) ($5,000,000 settlement granted preliminary approval and waiting on final approval). In addition, Mr. Lowther was class counsel for a nationwide class of borrowers who alleged Freedom Mortgage Corporation violated the terms of their mortgages by charging them unnecessary property-inspection fees—Cole v. Freedom Mortgage Corporation (Burl. County, NJ) ($650,000 settlement granted final approval).

In addition to his mortgage practice, Mr. Lowther also has an active practice representing insureds and third-party claimants in class actions against insurance companies for underpaying what their totaled cars are worth. He was recently appointed class counsel for a settlement class where members recovered approximately 75% of the amount wrongfully withheld from their total-loss payments—Zuern v. IDS Property Casualty Insurance Co. (W.D. WA.) ($1.75 million settlement granted final approval).

Mr. Lowther has also benefited from working in the courts. During law school, Mr. Lowther worked as an intern for the Honorable James M. Moody Sr., United States District Judge for the Eastern District of Arkansas. And after graduating, he clerked for the Honorable D.P. Marshall Jr., United States District Judge for the Eastern District of Arkansas. In these roles, Mr. Lowther had the benefit of working on cases during every stage of litigation, from the filing of the complaint through rulings on post-judgment motions. More importantly, Mr. Lowther observed firsthand how litigation strategies succeed and fail.

During law school, Mr. Lowther was chosen by faculty to join the National Trial Competition Team. He also competed in the 2012 Ben J. Altheimer Moot Court Competition, where he and his partner took the award for Best Respondent's Brief.

JAKE WINDLEY

Mr. Windley attended law school at UALR Bowen, where he graduated with high honors and served as the Executive Editor for the school's law review. During this time, he worked with the Arkansas Attorney General's Office in the Public Protection Division as the Janet Steiger Anti-Trust Fellow, a position sponsored by the American Bar Association. It was there that he developed his passion for consumer protection while working on anti-trust, healthcare, and consumer fraud cases. At Carney, Bates, & Pulliam, Mr. Windley has focused his attention to data privacy, debt relief, and consumer protection cases.

SAM JACKSON

Mr. Jackson joined Carney Bates & Pulliam in 2021 after developing a strong interest in protecting the public as a Deputy Prosecuting Attorney. As a Deputy Prosecuting Attorney Mr. Jackson gained invaluable litigation experience from his work evaluating cases, managing relationships with victims, negotiating cases with opposing counsel, and ultimately trying numerous cases in front of judges and juries. He gained the ability to quickly evaluate evidence and credibility and to identify weaknesses in case theory in a high-volume practice. Working to bring justice for victims of violent domestic and sexual abuse naturally led him to the firm, where his focus is on consumer protection and data privacy. Mr. Jackson was actively engaged in his educational communities both at Hendrix College (2008) and the University of Arkansas School of Law (2013). He remains engaged, volunteering his time for the tennis community in Little Rock as well as both the Arkansas and Southern Tennis Associations.

COURTNEY ROSS

Ms. Ross is the firm's newest associate. Prior to joining the firm, she was a judicial extern for United States Magistrate Judge Joe J. Volpe. She graduated cum laude from the University of Arkansas at Fayetteville School of Law, where she was chosen by faculty to be a member of the traveling young lawyers association's mock trial advocacy team. She also competed in many of the law schools' board of advocates competitions.

WILLIAM P. CREASMAN

For more than 32 of his 41 years of practice, Mr. Creasman has built and managed corporate legal departments and served as a chief legal officer or general counsel of a variety of companies, including Alltel Wireless, TCBY, and Wrangler Europe. Mr. Creasman has extensive domestic and international experience in corporate governance, securities, marketing, advertising, franchising, insurance, telecommunications, information technology, and employment law and has worked in the insurance, telecommunications, information technology, manufacturing, and foodservice industries.

He obtained his law degree from Wake Forest University and his undergraduate degree from The Johns Hopkins University. Over the years he has been an adjunct professor at the School of Law, University of Arkansas – Little Rock, a member of the Board of Directors of the Center for Arkansas Legal Services (a pro bono legal services corporation), and a Commercial Panelist for the American Arbitration Association. He is admitted to practice in Arkansas, North Carolina, and Texas.
